Hey, I hear GDTVD stands for Gotta Destroy The Ventriliquist Dummies and it consists of destroying ventriliquist dummies and it's held on a Tuesday night and it's illegal.

No. GDTVD stands for Giant Daytime TV Daze. It's Dave and Mark's annual homage to television. It's 30+ hours long and is held over an entire weekend. It's not illegal.

Hey, I hear you can only go to GDTVD if you get a personal invitation and there's no food allowed and once you show up you can't leave.

No. Anyone can attend GDTVD and people are encouraged to bring their friends. Not only is food allowed, guests should bring some food with them that they think everyone will enjoy. You can stay for any part of GDTVD: the whole thing, an entire evening, or just one show.

Hey, I hear GDTVD will be held at the Mosque of Ahmad Ibn Tulun in Cairo, Egypt.

No. GDTVD will be held this year at Sherry and Mark's new apartment.
